

Richard P. Johnston

Richard P. Johnston, the son of Frederick Miller Johnston and Margaret Ann McFadden, was born on Jul 1870 in Missouri<sup>1</sup> and resided in 1880 in Mill Spring, Wayne County, Missouri.<sup>2</sup> In 1892,<sup>3</sup> R.P. as he was known, married Almedia Holland, daughter of Robert Holland and Elizabeth Norman. Almedia was born on 15 Aug 1874.<sup>4</sup> As a side note, Robert Holland married Richard's sister, Mary Olive Johnston, in 1902.

Information on R.P. and Almedia is sketchy. Census data and newspaper articles of the time provide most of the information. On 10 Jan 1899, Fred and Margaret Ann Johnston deeded their son forty acres (NW ¼ of the SE ¼ of Sec 31, TS 28 R 3E) in Greenwood Valley. In 1900 Richard and his brother, Eugene, were both working as barbers Poplar Bluff, Butler County, Missouri.<sup>5</sup> In 1902, R. P. had moved his family to Shreveport, Louisiana to continue his barber career. His youngest child Bernice was born in Shreveport. Soon after the birth the family moved to Coffeyville, Kansas where, in 1907, Richard was initiated into the Modern Woodsmen<sup>6</sup> and became a state deputy of the Highland Nobles in 1909.<sup>7</sup> Almedia and R. P. had three children: Ruth M. Johnston, born 24 Aug 1893 in Poplar Bluff,<sup>8</sup> Frank Richard Johnston, born 12 Dec 1894 in Williamsville, Wayne County, Missouri.<sup>9,10</sup> and Bernice Johnston, born 14 Nov 1902 in Shreveport.

From 1910 to 1912, R.P., Almedia, and children lived at 510 E. 10th Street in Coffeyville, Kansas and R.P. worked as a traveling salesman. At some point between 1912 and 1917, R. P. left the family and “walked away from home because of discord in the home. No one ever saw him again.”<sup>11</sup> This may not be exactly true for numerous people told of having seen him and there was a brief note in The Coffeyville Daily 26 Mar 1912 stating, “Miss Ruth Johnson will leave the last of the week for an extended visit with her father, R.P. Johnson, at Fort Worth, Texas. No other records on R.P. have been found and even in 2015, living descendants did not know what happened to him.

In 1915, when Almedia's daughter Ruth married, the newspaper article describing the wedding listed “Mrs. Almeta Johnson” as the mother but there was no reference to R.P. In 1917, Almedia and two children lived at 506 E. 10th in Coffeyville and took in boarders. In 1922 Almedia lived at 817 Lincoln Street. She continued to live in Coffeyville until her children were married.

In 1927, she moved to St. Augustine, St. Johns County, Florida to be with her daughter Bernice, and lived at 11 Montrano Avenue in the Davis Shore area until she died on 13 Jul 1961. Almedia was buried in Evergreen Cemetery in St. Augustine.

Mary Olive Johnston

Mary Olive Johnston, the daughter of Frederick Miller Johnston and Margaret Ann McFadden, was born on 11 Dec 1872 in Mill Spring, Wayne County, Missouri.<sup>12</sup>

On 18 Feb 1891 in Hot Springs, Arkansas, Mary Olive married James Alexander Grassham, a farmer and planing mill foreman in Leeper, Wayne County, Missouri.

James was born in 1869 or 1870 in Paris, Texas and died before 1900.<sup>13</sup> Following the death of Grassham, Ollie and her three young children,

Bessie Grassham

born 1 Jun

1893, Eugene Alexander Grassham born 1 Oct 1895, and Charles Victor Grassham born 15 Nov 1897, moved back home to her parents' farm near Mill Spring.<sup>14</sup> To help support her family, Ollie went to work for Robert Holland, a widower who was much older than Ollie and who had children as old as Ollie in some cases. "Thinking people would believe wrong thoughts about them being under the same roof, they wed," writes Coralie Holland Webb, a granddaughter.

Ollie married Robert Holland on 7 Sep 1902 at her parents' home in Greenwood Valley, Wayne County, Missouri.<sup>15,16</sup> Holland was born 1 Mar 1829 in Hall County, Georgia and was the son of William Holland Jr. and Mary Polly Short.

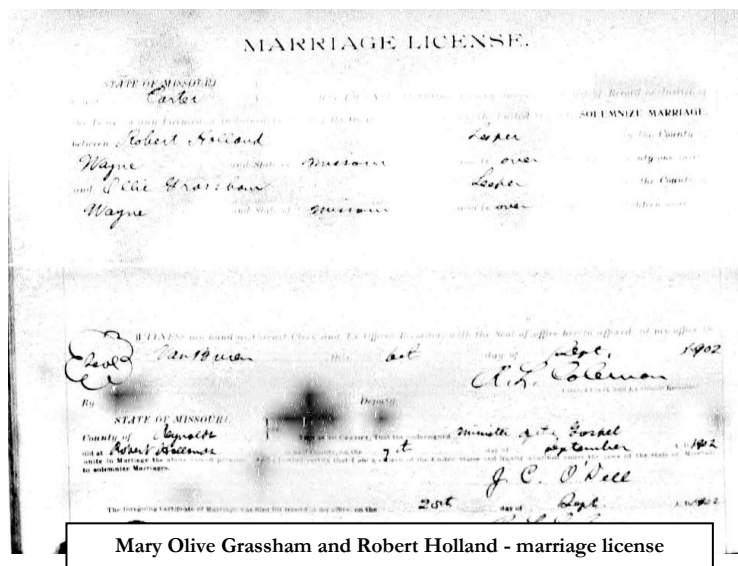

Mary Olive Holland and grandchildren Nita, Naomi and Norma Holland

Robert Holland, John Holland, Robert Holland Jr., Elizabeth Norman Holland, Joe Holland, Lucinda Holland 1895

Like Grassham, Holland was a farmer and lived in Webb, Reynolds County, Missouri. He married Elizabeth Norman in 1849 and served in Company A, of the 47th Missouri Infantry during the Civil War. Company A was assigned to Wayne County and Pilot Knob. Familiar names appear on the company "A" roster including Robert Carter, William R. McFadden and George W. Leeper. Holland was mustered out on 28 Mar 1865.

Robert and Elizabeth raised thirteen children before Elizabeth died 12 Jul 1901. Following Elizabeth's death, Robert hired Ollie to help with the children.

Ollie and Robert lived in Webb South Half, Reynolds County, Missouri<sup>17</sup> and had three children of their own: Norman Miller Holland born 12 Sep 1903. Sanford or Stanley Holland born in 1906, and Coralie Holland, born in 1909.<sup>18,19</sup>

On 8 Feb 1915, months before Robert Holland's death, Robert and Ollie sold their inherited interest in the Johnston family farm to Ollie's brothers, William and Eugene, giving

William a two-thirds interest and Eugene a one-third interest in the Greenwood Valley farm. Robert Holland died on 2 Apr 1915 and was buried in Alwood Cemetery in Reynolds County, Missouri. Ollie's youngest daughter Coralie Holland Webb wrote about this time in a letter. She said that when her father was ill and not expected to live, many relatives came and "just stayed waiting, and as though Mother didn't have enough to do, she had them all to wait on. After my father was dead and buried, they took it to court and tried to get 'something' and he had nothing but the farm and probably not a will. It made it real hard for my mother because she had to take I don't know how many trips, with me tagging along, for three or four days at a time to the county seat to court. Anyway, they weren't able to cut Mother and Norman and me out of any of the estate."<sup>20</sup> Ollie, with Robert's small Civil War pension, and the proceeds from the sale of the Holland farm moved back to live on the Johnston's Greenwood Valley farm in 1915. On 31 May 1916, following her mother's death in Mar 1916, Ollie purchased 40 acres of the farm, including the family home, from her brothers. Her son, Norman, and his family lived with her on the farm and worked the land and raised a family just as the previous generation had.

In 1922, Ollie rented or sold the farm to her brother-in-law, William R. McFadden and moved to Philadelphia, Yeadow Borough, Delaware County, Pennsylvania to live with her son, Charles Victor Grassham.<sup>21</sup> Every summer she returned to Greenwood Valley to visit family and friends. Ollie died on 6 Apr 1941 in Philadelphia,<sup>22</sup> and is buried in the Johnston family cemetery on the site of the family farm in Greenwood Valley, Wayne County, Missouri.

Upon her death, her sister Ethel Chilton wrote: “Loyalty to duties – and there have been many, loyalty to principles – and they have ever been the highest loyalty to family – and she never wavered here, loyalty to friends and neighbors – and they could always count on her, loyalty to church and God, loyalty in the truest and fullest sense has been the watchword of her life, unflinching courage – and there have been so many occasions that demanded just that; patience to wait and strive that the purpose planned and desired might be achieved; hopefulness in the outcome of all worthy needs; cheerfulness ever in meeting a crisis whether grave or trivial; a full measure of womanly graces and ambitions. Ollie has been a lingering figure of joy and comfort, beloved alike as mother, wife, grandmother, daughter, sister, friend and neighbor – a woman nobly planned.”<sup>23</sup>

William Wiley Johnston

William Wiley Johnston, the son of Frederick Miller Johnston and Margaret Ann McFadden, was born on 26 May 1875 in Wayne County, Missouri.<sup>24,25</sup> He grew up on the family farm in Greenwood Valley near Leeper, Wayne County, Missouri and attended county schools. He attended the Cape Girardeau Normal School in Cape Girardeau, Missouri to prepare to become a teacher.<sup>26</sup> This was the forerunner of Southeast Missouri State University and was attended by many of his siblings. After graduation, he worked as a teacher in the Leeper area, in Cape Girardeau County, and at Jackson, Missouri before heading to Doniphan, Ripley County, Missouri to live.<sup>27</sup>

He moved to Doniphan in 1898 or 1899 and may have taught in Doniphan and then worked as a clerk at the Palace Drug Store.<sup>28</sup> In August 1900 he purchased a drug store from Fred Caldwell and began Johnston's Pharmacy. In 1901 he added a soda fountain, the first of its kind in Ripley County.<sup>29</sup> Will's brother, Eugene, apprenticed with him to become a pharmacist and his partner in the business.

Will married Sallie Jane Mabrey on 25 Feb

William W. Johnston

HOME OF W. W. JOHNSTON, DONIPHAN, MO.

1902 in Doniphan.<sup>30,31</sup> Sallie was born on 28 Aug 1882 in Doniphan and was the daughter of Thomas Mabrey and Sarah Carter.<sup>32,33</sup> Her father was the proprietor of the Doniphan Prospect-News, a prominent lawyer, a notary public, a state representative, a state senator, and had a ferry boat and landing on the Current River opposite Doniphan. She was a member of the first high school graduating class of 1898 in Doniphan, and studied English, Latin, history and mathematics. After graduation from high school, Sallie went to Hardin College in Mexico, Missouri. She returned to Ripley County after completing her studies and taught in the local schools.<sup>34</sup> The couple purchased Lot 4, Block 1 in the Mabrey's Grove Addition of Doniphan, built a home on the lot on Grand Avenue, and moved in January 1906.

In 1910, Willie and his family, including his sister Ethel who was teaching school, lived on Grand Avenue in Doniphan and were a prominent couple in the city. In addition to running his pharmacy, Willie served on the school board, was city clerk, and was an avid sportsman, enjoying hunting and fishing. He had hunting dogs and a new "dandy" steel launch that he kept on the Current River.<sup>35</sup> Will was industrious in every endeavor. In 1906 he and some other Ripley County citizens incorporated to grub stake a miner, John Schriner, in a gold, silver, led and copper mine in Mexico. Johnston was Secretary of the corporation.<sup>36</sup> In addition, he expanded his pharmacy to include an Annex

In September 1909, the local newspaper wrote: "Johnston's Pharmacy, with Mr. W. W. Johnston as proprietor, is one of the best-conducted and most profitable businesses in the town. We were very much impressed with the size of the stock he carries and the business he is doing. His store is larger than any of its kind in Poplar Bluff or any of the larger towns surrounding. It is conducted by up-to-date business methods and would compare most favorably with the average down-town drug store in the city. Mr. Johnston takes great pleasure in hunting and fishing up and down the Current River, as will be further noticed when you see him in the midst of the hunting scene presented in this issue."

Another article reported: "W. W. Johnston is the proprietor and manager of one of the finest drug stores in Ripley County which is conspicuous as the agency of the world-famed Rexall Remedies and toilet articles. The store is finely furnished and carries a full line of rubber goods, popular novels and periodicals, Eastman kodaks, and victrolas. The prescription department is up-to-date and does a large business in that line.

“W. W. Johnston and E. B. Johnston are both registered pharmacists and have been successfully operating the store for the past 15 years. Two years ago they opened an ice cream parlor and delicatessen store which is one of the show places of the town and county.

“Elegantly furnished and equipped with a fine soda fountain, it caters to the best trade and has a fine moral effect with the young people of the community.

“Personally, the Johnstons are popular citizens whose public spirit and progressive methods place them in the front rank of Doniphan’s businessmen.

“The Johnston brothers, in addition to their lucrative business, own considerable land in Southeast Missouri which they rent on shares, producing fine crops of wheat and corn.”<sup>37</sup>

Johnston's Pharmacy advertisements

The pharmacy, in addition to drugs and prescriptions, also sold books, toys, jewelry, games, cutlery, paint, fancy china, perfumes, suitcases, school supplies, cigars, and was the broker for most event tickets sold in the town. The pharmacy even housed a circulating library.<sup>38</sup> The ads said, “Come to Johnston’s for anything you want!”<sup>39</sup> In 1908 Will became the agent in the Doniphan and the surrounding area for the Andrew Lohr Bottling Company, a producer of soda water, out of Cairo, Illinois.

In addition to a good business sense, William had a sense of humor. The Ripley County Democrat reported that “Johnston’s Pharmacy has an attractive window sign this week. Two mice in a box arranged with a tread mill wheel and in their play about the box the mice get on the wheel and make it go around very rapidly. It is amusing and attractive and there is generally a crowd around the window.”<sup>40</sup> Mice continued to be a problem for Will and six months later the paper reported the solution. “Druggist Will Johnston, of Johnston’s Pharmacy, received a ferret one day last week, which he had sent for, and the little animal had gone to work cleaning up the rats about his warehouse. Will had captured nine big gray fellows in a trap and he put the ferret at work on them with the result that in a very short time the only live thing in the cage was the ferret.”<sup>41</sup>

William died much too soon on 20 Aug 1916 at age 41 in Doniphan due to the perforation of the bowels during typhoid fever.<sup>42</sup> He was buried 22 Aug 1916 in Oak Ridge Cemetery, Doniphan, MO.<sup>43,44</sup> The Ripley County Democrat reported his death:

Death of W. W. Johnston

William W. Johnston died at his home on Grand Avenue, in this city, last Sunday morning at 3:05 o’clock, after an illness of about two weeks from typhoid fever.

No death that has occurred in this community in the history of the town occasioned more of a shock or surprise than when it became known. The deceased was so well known and generally liked, and, while it was known that he was ill with fever, it was known that he was not in a dangerous condition, and was not, in fact until about an hour or so before he died. At 11 o'clock Saturday night, in reply to queries as to his condition by those who know, he was getting along all right and doing as well as could be expected. About 1 o'clock the trained nurse in charge of the case noticed a change in his condition and called the physician, Dr. S. A. Proctor, who came immediately. There had been a change for the worse in the case, though right at this time it was not thought to be such as to lead to a fatal result, but it was soon found out that he was failing and could not be rallied, and he died at 5 minutes past 3 o'clock, surrounded by members of the family and relatives.

The deceased was a native of Leeper, Wayne county, having been born May 26, 1875. He spent his boyhood days on the home farm near Leeper and was educated in the schools of the county, finishing his education at the Cape Normal. He taught school at home and at Jackson, in Cape county, and came to this county about 1894 and became a member of the school corps of this city, teaching several terms. About 1898 or '99 he was employed as a clerk in the Palace drug store and in August 1900 purchased from Fred Caldwell the store he has conducted as Johnston's Pharmacy. Beginning business without much capital by careful attention, and a determination to serve the public faithfully, he built up a business that was successful, remunerative and deserved.

In February 1902, he was united in marriage to Miss Sallie Mabrey, third daughter of Hon. and Mrs. Thomas Mabrey, the young lady having gone to school to him as a girl. From this union two children were born, a son and a daughter, within the past few years he built and furnished a handsome home on Grand Avenue, in the old Mabrey Grove.

Beside the widow and two children he leaves three brothers and three sisters, one of the brothers, Eugene, being interested in the Pharmacy.

The funeral was held Monday after at 3 o'clock at the Methodist church, of which he was a member and an official. Rev. J. W. Worsnop, the pastor, officiated at the church and at the grave. During the hour of the funeral every business house in town was closed. The interment was beside his mother in Oakridge Cemetery. He was 41 years old last May.

As a citizen, he always took great interest in civic affairs, was ready at all times to do his share and aid in any way he could things that were of benefit to the community. He served as city clerk for four years, and was also a member of the school board for some years. In all his relations, public and private, he was kindly, obliging and ready to assist wherever benefit would come to his friends or the community. His death is a distinct loss to the town and the community. He was a member of the M. W. A. and held a certificate for $8,000. Beside the interest held in the drug business, which is considerable, he owned farm land and other real estate and had other interests of profitable character. He had a host of friends, few, if any enemies, and all unite in sympathy to the bereaved family and friends.

May his ashes rest in peace.<sup>45</sup>

In 1920, after Willie's death, Sallie and her daughter Bernice and son Mabrey continued to live on Grand Avenue in Doniphan and Sallie was an active partner in Johnston's Pharmacy with Eugene Johnston, Willie's brother.<sup>46</sup> Sallie was a member of the Methodist Church in Doniphan and was president of the mission society for several years. She was a charter member of the Tuesday Reading Club and belonged to the Royal Neighbors.

She died on 30 Dec 1945 in Doniphan<sup>47</sup> and was buried on 1 Jan 1946 in Oak Ridge Cemetery, Doniphan, Missouri.<sup>48</sup> The cause of death was a ruptured gall bladder.

James M. Johnston

The 1880 US Census and an early family history by Genealogical R & P of St. Louis, Missouri listed James M. Johnston as the son of Frederick Miller Johnston and Margaret Ann McFadden. According to Genealogical R & P's work, James M. was the twin of William W. and was born in 1876 in Greenwood Valley, Wayne County, Missouri. This same research lists the birth date of Eugene B. Johnston as Apr 1879.

The US Census of 1880, dated 10 Jun 1880 presents a different picture. James, in the census was 2 years old and his brother William was four. No younger children were listed. In the US Census of 1900, Margaret Ann Johnston records that she had given birth to 10 children and that 10 children were living.

Other records, including the World War I draft registration, filled out by Eugene, and his death certificate all list his birth date as 19 Apr 1878.

Perhaps the recording of James M. in the 1880 census was incorrect and James M. was really Eugene Basil. Perhaps William W. did indeed have a twin brother, but why did their mother say in 1900 that she had had 10 children and all 10 were surviving? The existence of James M. Johnston remains a mystery.

MRS. SALLIE JOHNSTON DIED HERE SUNDAY MORNING

Mrs. Sallie Johnston died at 10 o'clock Sunday morning at the Williams Hospital following a major operation the day before and an illness of a few days. She was 63 years of age.

Mrs. Johnston was born in Doniphan on August 28, 1882, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mabrey. Upon the completion of her grade and high school education here she attended Hardin College in Mexico, Mo. She taught a few years in Ripley County schools.

She was married to Will Johnston in 1901. He died in 1916.

Surviving are one son and one daughter. They are Mabrey Johnston of Doniphan and Mrs. Dave Jolly of Memphis, Tenn. She also is survived by three grandchildren, Dave Jolly, Jr., and Bill Jolly of Memphis and Barbara Ann Johnston of Doniphan. In addition, Mrs. Johnston is survived by four sisters, Mrs. Bess Mahoney, Mrs. Nora Mailugen and Mrs. H. N. Miles of Doniphan and Mrs. C. A. Ponder of Poplar Bluff, and one brother, Will C. Mabrey, of Jefferson City. All members of the immediate family were present for the funeral with the exception of Will Mabrey who is ill.

Mrs. Johnston was a member of the Methodist Church in Doniphan, acting as president of the missionary society for a number of years. She also was a charter member of the Tuesday Reading Club and belonged to the Royal Neighbors.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at the Methodist Church under the direction of the Rev. Otto Dvorak. Pallbearers were E. B. Johnston, Arthur Lacy, Carl Williamson, C. A. Doherty, P. Danner and G. A. Danner. Flower girls were members of the Tuesday Reading Club and the Lectus Club. A quartet composed of A. C. Jones, Miss Frances Rouse and Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Wright, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Arthur Lacy, sang at the funeral. Burial was in the Doniphan cemetery.

Eugene Basil Johnston

Eugene Basil Johnston, the son of Frederick Miller Johnston and Margaret Ann McFadden, was born on 19 Apr 1878 on the family farm in Greenwood Valley, Wayne County, Missouri.<sup>49,50</sup> Eugene, known as Gene, moved from his home in Greenwood Valley to begin a teaching career but he did not like teaching and turned to barbering. In 1900 he was a barber in Poplar Bluff, Butler County, Missouri and lived with his brother Richard.<sup>51 52</sup> He came to Doniphan in 1904 to join his brother, William, in the operation of Johnston's Pharmacy. In 1910 he was a lodger with Thomas Mabrey, father-in-law of his brother William on Grand Avenue and worked with his brother as a salesman in the pharmacy.<sup>53</sup> He became a licensed pharmacist in 1911 after studying with his brother and obtaining the state license, as was the practice of the time. Following William's death in 1916, Eugene and William's wife, Sallie, became partners in the pharmacy and he operated the business until 1958.<sup>54,55</sup>

Eugene was a lady's man, and was regularly teased in the local paper, The Ripley County Democrat. On 7 Sep 1906, the newspaper reported: "Eugene Johnston packed his grip elaborately the first of the week and told his brother, Will, that he was homesick and would go up to Leeper for a few days to visit with the 'folks' at home. At Neelyville, Gene lost track of direction and when he found out where he was, he was at Jonesboro, Arkansas and the expected guest of a charmingly handsome and very dear young lady friend. She gave him a big party while there, and the boys now all say that Gene thought he was there for sure about business in the matrimonial line, but it's a 'Crewson' story they tell about his exploded expectations. He found out the right road home and arrived here safely today. 'And the green grass grows all around on the little dead doggy's grave.'"

All was not lost because Eugene had a successful trip in 1916. On 7 Jul 1916 The

Ripley County Democrat reported: “Week before last Gene Johnston, of Johnston’s Pharmacy told the boys at the store that he was going to St. Louis on business. He didn’t stop at St. Louis any longer than it required to change cars, and he went on to Kansas City where on Saturday, June 24, he was united in marriage to Miss Winnie Davis West, of Creighton, Cass County, Mo., the ceremony being performed by Rev. Combs, pastor of the R. A. Long Christian Church. The bride is well known here having been a member of the teacher corps of the public schools during the school year of 1913-14. She is a handsome young lady, accomplished and Gene is to be fecilited [sic] of capturing so charming a specimen of femininity. They came home last week Friday and are at home to their friends at their residence on Plum Street.”<sup>56</sup>

Winnie Davis West was born on 26 Oct 1891 in Creighton, Cass County, Missouri,<sup>57</sup> and was the daughter of John Alexander West and Susan Jackson Horn. She was educated in Cinton High School and Springfield State Teacher College. Winnie came to Doniphan as a teacher in the city school in 1913. Gene and Winnie lived at 270 Plum Street in Doniphan, Ripley County, Missouri;<sup>58</sup>

Eugene was active in the Doniphan community and served as the chairman of Ripley County’s chapter of the American Red Cross. He served as a city councilman and chairman of the board of aldermen for about 49 years. He oversaw the building of the city hall, in which his pharmacy was located. He and another alderman contributed their salaries so that the Doniphan Special Road District could build the concrete pavement from Doniphan to the Current River bridge. He used his influence to secure the Memorial House for the public library building; he was director of the county Public Works Administration, the Works Progress Administration, and National Youth Administration. He was also a director of the Bank of Doniphan and was instrumental in the establishment of the First National Bank of Doniphan. He was a director of the Chamber of Commerce and served as county chairman of the Red Cross War Fund Campaign. His drug store was a popular meeting place for returning former Doniphan residents.

Winnie had been an invalid for 20 years when she died on 5 Apr 1943 in her home in Doniphan.<sup>59</sup> Her ill health began at the time of the birth of her only child, a son who lived only a few days. Following a paralytic stroke in 1929, she recovered to such an extent that she would walk and drive a car, but another stroke in 1939 made her condition much worse and she was confined to her bed or wheelchair. She was buried on 7 Apr 1943 in Oak Ridge Cemetery, Doniphan, Missouri,<sup>60,61</sup> and the cause of death was pulmonary edema due to paralysis and respiratory failure.

Following Winnie's death, Eugene remarried in Booneville, Logan County, Arkansas on 18 Jun 1945. His second wife was Ruth Evelyn Eads of Booneville. The couple lived in Doniphan at 501 Lafayette and he continued to run the pharmacy. Eugene died on 29 May 1958 in Doniphan Community Hospital.<sup>62,63</sup> He was buried 31 May 1958 in Oak Ridge Cemetery;<sup>64</sup> the cause of death was a cerebral hemorrhage.<sup>65</sup> Ruth died on 23 Mar 1994 and is buried in Oak Hill Cemetery in Logan County, Arkansas.<sup>66</sup>

John Edwin Johnston

John Edwin Johnston, the son of Frederick Miller Johnston and Margaret Ann McFadden, was born on 20 Nov 1880 in Leeper, Missouri.<sup>67</sup> John Edwin, known as John, grew up on his parent's farm in Greenwood Valley and attended area schools.<sup>68</sup> Most likely, he followed his siblings' footsteps and attended Cape Girardeau Normal School to become a teacher. Between 1900 and 1904 he moved to Doniphan, Ripley County, Missouri and began working there and possibly lived with his brother, Will.

John met Leone Tyler Haertel in Doniphan and on 7 Nov 1904 they married. Leone was born on 5 Apr 1883 in Waukesha, Wisconsin,<sup>69</sup> the daughter of Frank D. Haertel and Cathleen "Kitty" M. Tyler. Leone's mother most likely died during childbirth or shortly thereafter since no trace of her has been found since Leone's birth. Frank's family was from Waukesha but Frank left home about 1877 to work on the railroad out of St. Louis, Missouri. He and Kitty married on 20 Feb 1881 in St. Louis and in Jun 1881 Frank and Kitty returned to Waukesha and Frank joined with his brother Conrad to form Haertel Bros. Hardware. The venture was short-lived and the partnership was dissolved in 1883. Frank returned to railroading as a conductor in St. Louis, leaving his daughter with his mother and sister in Waukesha. On 1 Jun 1891 Frank married Bertha Elizabeth Smith, an immigrant from England. By 1903, Frank was living in Doniphan and was a conductor for the Iron Mountain Railroad.

Typical dray wagon

John Edwin, Leone, and Dean Johnston 1936

It is in Doniphan and during this time period, that John and Leone met, married and, celebrated the birth of their first son, Clive, on 27 Jul 1906. (Frank and Bertha divorced on 13 Jun 1904.)

John took a civil service examination in Nov 1905 to secure a rural mail delivery route in Doniphan, but he did not achieve the top score. He did operate a delivery service in Doniphan and by May 1906 had two dray wagons working the city. He was selected as a delegate to the Republican judicial convention in 1906 and was offered a position on the railroad in Oct 1906. It is not known if John took this position, but he and the family did move between 1907 and 1908.

John and Leone moved to Poplar Bluff, Butler County, Missouri in 1908<sup>70</sup> and there their second son, Dean, was born on 30 Dec 1908 and a daughter, Marjorie, was born on 15 Nov 1911. The family lived at 733 Kinzer and John was a dealer in railroad ties and lumber.

The years from 1915 to 1920 saw many moves for the Johnston family. About 1914 the family moved to St. Louis, where Leone's father and new wife, Louise Blythe, lived. John, Leone, and children lived at 3904 Shaw Avenue; John worked as a railroad inspector.<sup>71</sup> In 1916 they were at 4175 DeTonty, St. Louis, Missouri,<sup>72</sup> and in 1917 at 3600 Cora Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri.<sup>73</sup> In 1917 Johnston was the manager of Carter Timber & Mercantile Co 2600 S Main.<sup>74</sup> In 1918 he was superintendent of Charles C. Curry & Co.<sup>75</sup> and the family lived at 3600 Cora Ave in St. Louis, Missouri.<sup>76</sup> In 1920 he was an inspector with the railroad and the family lived at 3711 Olive Street - St. George Apartments.<sup>77</sup> For one year, the family lived on a house boat on a river as Johnston moved rail road ties up and down the river.<sup>78</sup>

In 1922, the family moved to Hugo, Oklahoma where John operated a hotel.<sup>79</sup> Oklahoma also brought tragedy to the family. Their youngest child and only daughter, Marjorie, drowned in the Kiamichi River northeast of Hugo while on a picnic.<sup>80</sup> This was devastating for the family. The accident and the Great Depression in 1929 changed the fortunes of the family.

JOHNSTON—John Edwin Johnston, 62, of Kemah died at his home at 2 a. m. Thursday. He had been a resident of Kemah for the past year. Prior to that, he had been in Houston for a number of years. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Leone Johnston of Kemah, two sons, C. H. Johnston of Kemah and Lieut. Dean Johnston of Williamsburg, Va., a sister, Mrs. Ethel Chilton of Doniphan, Mo., a brother, Eugene Johnson of Doniphan, Mo., and a grandson, Eustace Dean Johnston of Kemah. Funeral arrangements will be announced by Geo. H. Lewis & Co.

business operation. The hotel was not near the train depot and the two sons were often sent to solicit customers at the train station. By 1927 John abandoned the hotel business, leaving debts and heartache behind, and looked to Texas for employment.<sup>81</sup> Both John and Leone had relatives in Texas and no doubt heard of opportunities from them.

John and Leone moved to Beaumont, Jefferson County, Texas and John worked as a foreman for International Creosote & Construction Company and their son Clive found work in the oil refineries and Dean entered Beaumont High School. After Dean finished high school, John and Leone moved to Houston and in 1931 John worked for Southwestern Laboratories in Houston, Texas<sup>82</sup> and they lived at 901 Barkdull St. in Houston, Texas.<sup>83</sup> Between 1935 and 1940 John and Leone moved to Lufkin, Texas where John was an inspector in a lumber yard but moved back to the Houston area in 1942 and lived from 1942 to 1943 in Kemah, Galveston County, Texas.<sup>84</sup>

John died on 4 Mar 1943 in Kemah of hypertension and arterial sclerotic,<sup>85</sup> and was buried on 4 Mar 1943 in Forest Park Cemetery, Lawndale, Houston, Harris County, Texas.<sup>86</sup> Following the death of John, Leone remained in Kemah and later married Clarence Joseph Caywood in 1948.

C. J. as he was known, was born on 18 Mar 1884 in Crab Orchard, Johnson County, Nebraska but had moved to Houston, Texas by 1900. He married Pauline Idell Glover on 1 Jan 1907; and they had three children: Marion Julia, Pauline Idell, and Virginia Elaine. He owned and operated the Clarence J. Caywood Electric Company in Houston. Pauline died on 23 Nov 1944 in Houston, and C. J. retired soon after her death. By 1948, he had moved to Kemah where he operated a dairy farm that was known countywide for its poultry.

Leone and CJ Caywood

C. J. and Leone were married on 3 Jun 1948 at the Episcopal Church in Dickinson. In 1974 they lived at 1302 FM Road 518, League City, Texas<sup>87</sup> Leone died there on 16 Mar 1974 and was buried on 18 Mar 1974 in Forest Park East Cemetery, League City, Texas.<sup>88</sup> C. ### Clive W. Johnston

Clive W. Johnston, was born in August 1883<sup>89</sup> and died on 3 Jul 1903 in Leeper, Wayne County, Missouri. Clive, like his siblings, grew up on the family farm in Greenwood Valley and went to the county schools. In 1900 he lived in Mill Spring, Wayne County, Missouri and on 9 Jul 1903 Clive drowned in the Black River at age 19.

“Clive, the nineteen year-old son, visited his father there [at the post office in Leeper, Missouri]. He and another boy took a swim across the Black River – never reached the other side. One of the men was carried out to the farm on a stretcher. Both are buried at the cemetery at the family farm.”

Clive is buried on the family farm. The cemetery is a small private one located on a wooded hill above the Johnston family farm in the Greenwood Valley area of Wayne County. Clive was not married.

Ethel Johnston

Ethel Johnston, daughter of Frederick Miller Johnston and

Ripley County Democrat, 25 Jul 1914

Margaret Ann McFadden, was born on 3 Nov 1888 on the family farm in Greenwood Valley near Leeper, Wayne County, Missouri.<sup>90</sup> Ethel grew up on the family farm, but moved to Doniphan, where three of her brothers lived, to attend high school. She graduated from Doniphan High School in 1907. In 1910 she lived with her brother William<sup>91</sup> and worked as a schoolteacher.<sup>92</sup>

She married John Bailey Chilton, on 20 Feb 1916 in Doniphan at her home.<sup>93</sup> Chilton was the son of Isaac Chilton and Mary

Ripley County Democrat, 25 Feb 1916

Carter, and was born on 14 Apr 1890 in Leeper.<sup>94,95</sup>

Following their marriage, Ethel and John lived in Mill Spring, Wayne County, Missouri,<sup>96</sup> and were partners in a general store and lumber mill with John's brother Frank Chilton.<sup>97</sup> John died suddenly and unexpectedly on 31 Jan 1926 in Mill Spring of an embolism of the coronary artery.<sup>98</sup> He was buried in Masonic Cemetery, Piedmont, Wayne County, Missouri,<sup>99</sup>

Following John's death, Ethel sold her interest in F. S. Chilton and Co. to Frank and invested her profits in the stock market. In 1929, after being informed by her trust company in St. Louis, Missouri that all her investments had been lost in the stock market crash of 1929, she moved back to Doniphan where her two brothers, William W. and Eugene B. Johnston, owned and operated Johnston's Pharmacy. She lived at 500 Lafayette Street.

Ethel began again by teaching in the rural schools of Ripley

County during the school year and attending Southeast Missouri State College in Cape Girardeau, Missouri in the summer months. She earned her degree and taught English in Doniphan High School for more than twenty years. She was a diligent teacher and insisted that her students read as many books as possible and do their best to speak correct English, both at home and in public.

In 1937 she opened the Missouri Theater and operated it with her children. In 1950 she, along with her daughter Marian and son-in-law W. D. "Don" Dowdy, opened the Stadium Drive-in Theatre and in 1960.

Ethel was involved in many civic activities including serving as the chairman of the committee that began the Doniphan Public Library. She was active in many organization including Chapter FN o PEO in Doniphan and was a member of the First Christian Church of Doniphan.

Ethel died on 17 Oct 1960 in Ripley County Memorial Hospital, Doniphan, Missouri.<sup>101</sup> She was buried 19 Oct 1960 in the Masonic Cemetery in Piedmont, Missouri.<sup>102</sup> At her death, the owner and editor of The Prospect-News wrote, among other things about her that, "...she was one of Ripley County's most useful citizens."

Children:

Marian Johnston Chilton born 1 Aug 1921.

Alan Johnston Chilton, born Jun 1924 in St. Louis.

MRS. ETHEL J. CHILTON, THEATRE OWNER AND RETIRED TEACHER, DIED MONDAY NIGHT

Mrs. Ethel Johnston Chilton, one of Ripley county's most useful and highly respected ladies, passed away at the Ripley County Memorial Hospital in Doniphan Monday evening about 7 o'clock, where she had been a patient since its opening, and prior to that since July 9 in the Community hospital.

Mrs. Chilton was a native of Wayne county, having been born at Greenwood Valley November 3, 1888. She came to Doniphan when a girl and attended high school here. She later attended Southeast State College at Cape Girardeau, where she was graduated, and Missouri University at Columbia. She taught in the rural schools of this county and in Doniphan schools for many years. In 1934 she entered the theatre business and continued to teach and operate the Chilton Theatre until 1943 when she resigned her teaching position and devoted her full time to the theatre business. In 1950 she erected the Stadium Drive In Theatre at the north end of Grand Avenue, since which time, with the help of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Don Dowdy, she has operated the two amusement places, the Drive-In and the Missouri Theatre down town.

Although her health failed several years ago, she continued active in business until about six months ago when she was forced to retire.

During her long residence in Doniphan, Mrs. Chilton was active in civic, social and church work. She was a member of the P.E.O., the Lectus Club, Eastern Star and the Christian church, and was active in all of them, taking a special interest in church work. For many years she was the only lady member of the Chamber of Commerce.

She was married in 1916 to John B. Chilton of Wayne county who died in 1927. They were the parents of two children, Mrs. Dowdy and Alan (Dugan) Chilton, who was a casualty of World War II.

Survivors are her daughter, Mrs. Marian Dowdy, and a granddaughter, Alanna Dowdy of this city.

Funeral services were held at the Christian church in this city yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Rev. B. R. Hollis. Interment was in the Masonic cemetery at Piedmont under the direction of Edwards Funeral Home of Doniphan. Pallbearers were: Bill Wright, John Ditto, Claude Grieb, J. O. Carson, Doug Harris and Max Shemwell.

BIRD DOG FIELD TRIALS ARE OCT. 30

Entries are now being accepted for the bird dog field trials on Sunday, October 30, at 8 a.m. at Dailey Pulliam's goat ranch on Highway 21 south of Doniphan. Entries will be limited to 36 dogs, the first 36 being accepted. Dog owners may make their entries now at Roberts Brothers or the Baker Land Company office. Braces will be drawn Thursday, October 27, at 7:30 p.m. at the veterans room of the armory during a meeting of the sponsoring Ripley County Wildlife Conservation Club.

Live pheasants will be used in the field trials on October 30 beginning at 8 a.m. at the Pulliam farm. Trophies and three place ribbons will be awarded in three classes, puppy, derby and all age. Jess Murray is arranging for lunch to be served on the grounds.

OFFICIALS APPROVE HEALTH CENTER PROGRAMS

Representatives of federal and state health agencies inspecting the Ripley County Health Center have expressed satisfaction with the maternal and child health program promoted by the center, announces Mrs. Sybil Ederer, county health nurse.

The public health delegates, Dr. May Williams of the U. S. Public Health Service, Dr. Linn Garner of the Division of Health, and Dr. B. S. Beecher of District 4.

Fredrick Miller Johnston, Jr.

Fredrick Miller “Fred” Johnston Jr., the youngest child of Frederick Miller Johnston and Margaret Ann McFadden, was born 19 Jul 1891<sup>103</sup> and grew up on the family farm in Greenwood Valley near Mill Sprint, Missouri. Like most children of farmers, his young years were spent laboring on the farm, but Fred had his sights set beyond the farm and as a young man began to teach himself telegraphy.

“Since it is much easier to send a message than to receive, my dad and Uncle Charles helped him [Fred] out by sending messages. Then Fred would listen at the depots at Leeper and Mill Spring. He went to Poplar Bluff and passed the exam and got a job in Kansas as a lineman on a railroad. He was working on a line one day when an unscheduled train approached. It hit his motor car, knocking it off the track. Fred had jumped to safety but when the train hit the motor car, it flung it on Fred. Fred met his death this way.”<sup>104</sup>

He was in the employ of the Mo.-Pac. as telegraph operator Council Groves and was acting agent at a station a few miles south of his station and was on his way home when the accident occurred. He met the train in a curve, and getting off tried to remove the car but the train was too close upon him and before he could get out of the way the car was thrown from the track by the engine and he was caught and so severely injured that he died the next morning. A number of relatives, including an other brother, John of St. Louis, his sister, Mrs John Chilton and her husband, were here for the funeral.
